

SUMMER SCHOOL OF SLAVONIC STUDIES

FACULTY OF ARTS AND PHILOSOPHY

OF CHARLES UNIVERSITY

Institute of Czech Studies

PRAGUE 2011

The 55th session of the Summer School of Slavonic Studies (the LŠSS) held under the auspices of the Rector of Charles University prof. RNDr. Václav Hampl, DrSC. is designed for the specialists of the Slavic and Bohemistic field, postgraduate and undergraduate students, translators and for everybody, who is interested in the Czech language, literature, history and culture. In addition to a survey of contemporary research in Czech language and literature and Czech history, it provides many cultural opportunities. A wide range of instruction, including practical language courses, optional seminars and specialized lectures, will be offered by highly qualified teaching staff from Charles University and from research institutes of the Czech Academy of Science. The Executive Committee of the LŠSS, presided over by PhDr. Jiří Hasil will ensure the academic standard and content of courses given at the School.

TERM

29 July - 26 August 2011

The LŠSS starts on Friday 29 July 2011.

The official opening ceremony /and placement test/ is scheduled for Saturday 30 July.

Classes begin on Monday 1 August, and end on Thursday 25 August.

The closing ceremony will take place on Thursday afternoon 25 August. The day of departure is Friday 26 August 2011.

PLACE

Charles University in Prague, Faculty of Arts and Philosophy, nám. Jana Palacha 2, Praha 1

PROGRAMME

Instruction takes place each morning 9:00–13:30, from Monday to Friday, and consists of:

A. practical language courses,

B. optional seminars,

C. specialized lectures.

The programme features 25 lessons (of 45 minutes) of language classes, excursion, cultural field trips, and independent study. A total number of lessons is 120.

Students will be divided into four levels according to the results of the initial placement test. The aim of the test is to determine the level of proficiency in grammar, vocabulary, and comprehension of written text. A short conversation with a lecturer is also a part of the test.

Within each level, students will be divided into several courses according to the number of participants and their proficiency. In the beginning, intermediate and advanced levels, the differentiation will be according to the language of instruction, which may be English, French, Russian, German or Spanish. Instruction in the proficient level courses will be exclusively in Czech.

After four weeks of the Summer Language School students will get the certificate of achievement with an evaluation report (A+, A – Excellent; B+, B – Very Well; C+, C – Good). They can achieve 4 ECTS credits.

Students will have a possibility to study at the language laboratory. The secretariat of the LŠSS will assist anyone interested in independent research in archives, libraries and it will arrange individual consultations with Czech specialists, as far as possible.

The LŠSS instruction is completed by a social-cultural program organized in the afternoons, evenings, and during weekends. Participation in these activities is voluntary. In the clubroom of the residence hall, screenings of Czech films, evenings of Czech music, as well as evenings of singing Czech folk songs will be held. The LŠSS also organizes visits to historical monuments and galleries in Prague. Every Saturday students can choose one of two field trips and every Sunday one of two afternoon trips to attractive places in the Czech Republic, including historical towns, castles, chateaux, monasteries, spas, and places of natural beauty.
