

New funding opportunities for life scientists in the Czech Republic

Postdoctoral Fellowships

Five reserved fellowships for applicants going to participating countries*, with support for a period of up to two years. Applicants meeting the quality criteria will be guaranteed an interview.

Advanced Collaboration Grants

A new scheme for group leaders who wish to visit scientists in other countries to develop or carry out collaborative projects, or to prepare joint grant proposals

Lecture Courses

Funding for lecture courses to train PhD students and postdoctoral researchers

Lecture Series

Funding to invite EMBO Members and Young Investigators to give lecture series

Existing EMBO funding schemes

Courses & Workshops
Funding for scientific meetings and workshops

Scientific Exchange Grants
Funding for research exchanges between laboratories

New Venture Grants
Support for early career scientists who want to enter a new field

Core Facility Fellowships
Funding for international exchanges between core research facilities

Young Investigators
Support for young group leaders

Installation Grants
Support for group leaders establishing laboratories in countries participating in the scheme

Find more information, the detailed eligibility criteria, and application deadlines at embo.org/funding