

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Mgr. Jaroslav Miller, MA, PhD.

Born: January 8, 1971

Marital Status: Married, 2 children (Jan – 21, Barbora – 18)

Study:

- Palacký University (History – Philology), 1989–1995
- Central European University, Budapest (MA, PhD – Comparative History), 1996/1997, 1998–2004.
- University of Oxford, Lady Margareth Hall, United Kingdom (PhD Study – Comparative History), 1999–2000.

Academic Degrees:

Professor of History (2012)

2x Ph.D (2000 UP, 2004 CEU/University of New York), Associate Professorship (2004), Prof. (2012).

Academic Positions:

- Deputy Minister of Education, Youth and Sports (since 1. 2. 2022)
- Rector of the Anglo-American College (1. 8. 2021 – 31.1. 2022)
- Rector of Palacký University, Olomouc (since 1. 2. 2014 to May 1, 2021).
- Vice-Chairman of the Czech Rectors Conference (since June 2019 to May 1, 2021)
- Head of the Institute of History at Palacký University (to 31. 1. 2014).

Fields of Research:

Urban Studies, Czechoslovak and Central European Exile, History of Political Thought, Early Modern History, Intellectual History

Study Programme Management:

Director of the PhD Study Programme in History at Palacký University.

Long-Term Research Stays Abroad (at least 4 months):

- University of Oxford, Lady Margareth Hall (1999–2000) – PhD Study in Comparative History.
- University of Toronto, Center for East European Studies, Kanada (2001).
- Zentrum für Geschichte und Kultur Ostmitteleuropas, Leipzig, SRN (2001).
- Herzog August Bibliothek, Wolfenbüttel, SRN (2004, 2010) – Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.
- Herder Institut, Marburg, SRN (2006) – Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung.
- University of Georgia, USA (2008) – Fulbright Scholarship (Scholar-in-Residence)
- Institut für vergleichende Städtegeschichte, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität, Münster, SRN (2010) – Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung.
- University of Western Australia, Perth (2010–2011) – Go8 Guest Professorship.
- UCSI University of Kuala Lumpur (2023 – 2025) – Distinguished Guest Professorship

Research Projects Received:

- Eight Research Projects funded by the Grant Agency of the Czech Republic
- Six International Research Projects funded by the Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung (2x), A.W. Mellon Foundation, Fulbright Committee, Visegrad Group Research Grants.

Member and Reviewer of the 2020, 2022, 2024 ERC Consolidator Panel (SH6 – History)

Selected Academic Awards:

- Distinguished Professorship at UCSI University, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia (2023–2025)
- The Ambassador of the Fulbright Programme in the Czech Republic appointed by His Excellence Ambassador of the United States (2012)
- “R. John Rath Prize for the Best Study in Habsburg History” (2005)
- “Best Urban History Monograph Award” (2009)
- „CEU Alumni Award“ (2016)
- Doctor Honoris Causa bestowed by the Dragomanov University, Kyiv (2020, awarded 2023)

Membership in Research Organisations:

- Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung (since 2004)
- Fulbright Fellow (since 2008)
- European Association for Urban History (since 2004)

Membership in Scientific Councils

- Palacký University, Olomouc – Chairman
- Masaryk University (Brno), Comenius University (Bratislava), Pavel Josef Šafárik University (Prešov), Mendel University (Brno), Pardubice University.

Member of the Fulbright Board of Trustees (since 2022)

Member of the Academic Advisory Board of the Government of the Czech Republic for the Industry 4.0

Member of the Council for Integrated Territorial Investment of Olomouc Region.

Invited Lectures

- 43 invited lectures abroad (USA, United Kingdom, Hungary, Australia, Poland, Germany, Canada, Saudi Arabia, Morocco, the Low Countries, Malaysia)
- 57 invited lectures in the Czech Republic

Selected Monographs and Journal Articles (altogether 11 monographs and 87 articles published since 1994):

Miller, Jaroslav. „In Each Town I Find a Triple Harmony“: Idealizing City and the Language of Community in Early Modern (East) Central European Urban Historiography, Urban History. 1, 2012, s. 3-21.

Idem, “Due to Disagreements, great, mighty and opulent cities fell into misery and destitution”: A City in Premodern (East) Central Europe and the Collapse of Traditional Community?, Parergon: Journal of the Australian and New Zealand Association for Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 29/1, 2012, s. 165 – 188.

Idem, Zapadlí vlastenci: Český exil v Západní Austrálii (1948–1989), Praha: Nakladatelství Lidové noviny 2014.

Idem – Jana Burešová – Miloš Trapl, Český exil v Austrálii, 1948 – 1989, Praha: Nakladatelství Lidové noviny 2016.

Idem, Urban Societies in East-Central Europe, 1500 – 1700, Ashgate: Aldershot – New York, 2008 (Best Urban History Monograph Award 2009)

Idem – László Kontler, Friars, Nobles and Burghers – Sermons, Images and Prints: Studies in Culture and Society in Early Modern Europe, New York - Budapest: CEU Press, 2010.
Idem, Propaganda, symbolika a rituály protestantské Evropy, 1580 – 1650, Praha, NLN, 2012.
Idem, Early Modern Urban Immigration in East-Central Europe: a Macroanalysis, Austrian History Yearbook, XXXVI, 2005, s. 3 – 39.
Idem, Organizace českého exilu v Austrálii v letech 1948-1989, Theatrum historiae 15, 2014, s. 297 – 324.
Idem, Far from the Madding Crowd. Czechoslovak Exile in Australia, 1948 – 1989, Bohemia – Zeitschrift fuer Geschichte und Kultur der boehmischen Laender, 59/2, 2019, s. 253 – 272.
Idem, Czechoslovakia Exiled: František Váňa and Hlas domova, Praha: NLN 2021.
Idem, Parallel Polis: Premodern City as Imagined Community, 1450–1800, Gent: Brepols 2025, in print.

Language Competencies:

English, German, Russian - proficient

Spanish, Slovak, Latin - passive